About KAOC

Kerala Association of Colorado (KAOC) is a community driven cultural organization for Malayalees ('Malayalam' speaking people or the people from the South Indian state of Kerala) in Colorado, serving for more than 35 years. It acts as a bedrock for all types of arts and cultural activities for Keralites in Colorado.

KAOC provides a forum for its members to meet and exchange views, and to foster a spirit of friendship, goodwill and understanding. The primary and distinguishing purpose of a cultural organization like KAOC is to bind the community together by promoting and preserving its identity, traditions, and values. By providing public programs through which cultural heritage can be shared, KAOC strives to build bridges between various cultural groups and the larger Indian Community.

KAOC is committed to serving the community, through its annual Indian Dance Festival, Picnic, Music Night, Onam and Christmas Celebrations. It has been striving to keep the Malayalee culture alive, through cultural as well as community activities.

About Indian Dance Festival

The Indian Dance Festival (IDF) is a premier cultural event that provides a wonderful platform for talented dancers in Colorado. Kerala Association of Colorado (KAOC) has been organizing the Indian Dance Festival annually for the past 20 years.

Open to all residents of Colorado, this annual event features performances par excellence by professional and amateur artistes of Colorado. It brings to stage a wide range of Indian dance forms demonstrating the rich cultural heritage of India.

IDF is a cultural treat that the community looks forward to every year with great enthusiasm, equally by the participants and the guests. IDF has grown to become one of the biggest gatherings of the Indian Community in Colorado.

Prakriti

When nature meets dance

The Kerala Association of Colorado celebrates it's 21st Indian Dance Festival (IDF) - A premier event celebrating all traditional dance forms from India, showcasing its rich and vibrant cultural heritage - themed Prakriti - When nature meets dance.

Prakriti is nature – and nature is what provides life and balance to this planet. On this 21st year of IDF, KAOC is organizing a celebration of dance and nature,

What "PRAKRITI" encompasses:

Prakriti is a composition of five elements, Earth, Water, Air, Fire and Sky - The Panchabhootas. The 2021 Indian Dance Festival will be a depiction of the Panchabhootas, finely crafted in a synergy of Music and Dance.

#03. Nrithya Jeevan Hai - Semi-Classical Dance

Choreographer: Natasha Paul

The three compositions chosen combine the four natural elements of fire, water, air, and earth, under the obscurity of space. They represent the potential for knowledge and power, through which display the intriguing aspects of the unknown and new enlightenment of humanity. The rhythm and beats of the music help bring across the mystical properties and elegance of space, in the form of a semi classical dance. The passion and precision of this dance helps combine the exquisite, unique properties of bharatanatyam in a new way.

Performers: Natasha Paul, Maria Mundackal,
Syna Joseph, Hannah Cyril, Aaralyn Vadakkan,
Ima Mervin
